Fédération Internationale des Lutttes Associées (FILA) Rules and Regulations introduced after January of the year of a World Police and Fire Games competition may not be recognized by the Host and the World Police and Fire Games Federation, for the conduct of the Wrestling competition, in that year

PRIORITY OF RULES, INTERPRETATION & GUIDANCE:

In the event of “ANY CONFLICT” between the current FILA Rules for Wrestling and the WPFG WRESTLING RULES, as per the WPFG General Rules, “WPFG RULES SHALL BE USED”.

IDEOLOGY

Wrestling, like all other sports, obeys Rules that constitute the "Rules of the Game" and define its practice, the aim of which is to "pin" the opponent or to win on points.

Greco-Roman and Freestyle wrestling basically differ as follows:

- In Greco-Roman Wrestling, it is strictly forbidden to grasp the opponent below the belt-line or to trip him or to use the legs actively on his opponent to perform any action.
- In Free Style wrestling, however, it is permissible to grasp the legs of the opponent, to trip him and to use the legs actively to perform any action.

- Women’s Freestyle Wrestling follows the rules of Freestyle Wrestling, forbidding however the Double Nelsons.

Frequently modified and always subject to further modification, the Rules set forth below AND the current FILA Rules must be known and accepted by all wrestlers, coaches, referees and leaders. They call upon those who practice the sport to fight totally and universally, with complete honesty and fair play for the pleasure of the spectators.
